Fire Pump Type “L” Seminars

The IUOE Local 501 Training Center will be offering online Fire Pump Type “L” seminars for 2021. After completion of a seminar, members receive a Certificate of Completion. The hours of the certificate may be applied towards BOMA recertification for members that are currently BOMA certified. The seminars will be online-based via Zoom. For further information email JATC-LAInfo@local501.org or visit us at www.local501training.org.

Course Description: This course is designed to prepare the Operating Engineer for the California State Fire Marshal’s mandatory weekly/monthly Fire Pump testing certification as part of the “L” licensing of the facility. This course is not designed to teach the Operating Engineer how to test a Fire Pump system, but only to prepare them for the certification test, and what is required under the State Fire Marshals regulations for the facility in licensing and required building fire pump testing.

Learning Objectives:

- Providing necessary steps and paperwork to apply for the Type “L” license for the property
- Provide necessary steps and paperwork to obtain your Weekly/Monthly California Fire Pump Certification
- Review content that will be tested on the Certificate’s exam
- Discuss the required materials to be maintained on site per California State Fire Marshal code
- Review the procedures and costs associated with the Fire Pump Certification exam

*This course does not Certify students for the Fire Pump Testing Certification required by the California State Fire Marshal. All material presented and reviewed in this course is preparatory in nature and does not reflect exacting questions found on the exam.

JATC Disclosures:

1. The Operating Engineers Local 501 JATC reserves the right to cancel or reschedule a class.
2. The number of BOMA hours earned depends on the number of class hours attended
